BELOVED DAUGHTER CALLED HIGHER

May Shofner Daughter of Prominent Residents of Valley Claimed By Death.

Miss May Shofner, whose serious illness was recorded in these columns last week, was called to eternal rest Monday night. She passed away at the hospital where she had been taken for treatment. Just prior to her death she rallied and her condition was regarded as very favorable but before her parents could be summoned to her bedside, she again took a sinking spell and died almost instantly.

The remains of the young woman were brought home for the last sad rites and the family summoned from Oregon and Los Angeles to be with the bereaved parents in their great grief. The heart of the community has gone out to both mother and father in their trouble and sorrow and many friends mourn the sad passing of deceased. Miss Shofner had been a prominent member of several clubs a faithful church worker and highly esteemed young woman. She often entertained at the handsome home of her parents and was an ideal hostess. She was a devoted daughter and the almost constant companion of her mother. While living in Portland she had affiliated with the First Baptist church of that city of which she was a member in good standing. Deceased was 34 years of age and a young woman of personal charm of manner and many amiable traits of character.

Funeral services will be held from the Shofner residence today at 1 p. m. and as they will be conducted in the open air, all friends are invited to attend. Rev. J. Q. A. Henry of San Francisco, formerly of Portland, will officiate at the last sad rites.

Peaceful Mountain Cemetery will be the resting place of all that is mortal of the beloved daughter and sister

Irving Shepard has written from Scotland where his ship carrying a cargo of mines arrived safety. On the return trip he may get up to the London ranch on a furlough.

A WORTHY CAMPAIGN FOR THE BOYS "OVER THERE"

The seven welfare organizations which are serving American and Allied soldiers,, the Y. M. C. A., National Catholic War Council including K. of C., War Camp Community Service, American Library Association, Jewish Welfare Board and Salvation Army, have, at the request of President Wilson, combined forces for a drive for war funds during the week of Nov. 11 to 18.

The campaign will be for $170,500,000 and California's share is $4,688,750.

Every cent raised will be used in war work and will be the means of maintaining and raising the splendid morale of the soldiers and sailors. State and county committees have been formed and the campaign will be carried down to the last home in the community. It will signify the nation's backing of the men at the front, a tribute from the hearts of the people to the boys who are offering their lives that liberty shall not perish from the face of the earth.

WHAT THE Y. M. C. A. DOES

CONTEST LIKELY OVER HARVEY ESTATE

Contest of the will of Dr. William P Harvey was revealed as a probability today with the filing of will for probate, Tuesday. No share of the estate, worth about $100,000, is bequeathed to Dr. Harvey's widow, Mrs. Leta Gallatin Harvey, 114 Frederick street San Francisco. Mrs. Harvey obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce in 1916 but neither she nor Harvey ever applied for the final decree.

Consequently Mrs. Harvey was Dr. Harvey's wife at the time of his death and entitled to claim a community interest in the estate. The will was filed for probate by Fred A. Denicke, named in the will as trustee of a fund for Norma Harvey the 7 year old daughter of the Harveys.

Besides the trust fund, the will bequeaths a part of the estate to Dr. Harvey's mother Mrs. Roselle H. Harvey, and the residue to nieces in Ill.

The interlocutory decree gave Dr. Harvey and his wife joint custody of the child. Dr. Harvey died last Sunday of influenza. He was a brother of Dr. Harvey of this place.

WOULD RUIN OUR PEOPLE

The Expositor asks you to vote "Yes" on No. 22 the bone dry amendment which would make California bone dry on Dec. 31st of thisyear. thus ruining our wine and vineyard people and many of our best citizens. Such advice should be repudiated at the polls by every fair minded man and woman in Sonoma valley. Vote 'No' on amendment 22 which is not the Rominger bill but far more pernicious, pin-headed legislation.

CALLED IN THE DRAFT

Among the 100 registrants called for examination Wednesday at Santa Rosa were: Ralph Busby, Ernest Coates, Russell Prestwood, A. Ferrani, Geo. Jones El Verano, A. Andreggen, Fred Stuermer Boyes Springs, E. J. Gavin Boyes Springs, H. Coisson, L. F. Troy Boyes Springs, S. Codutti, I. Small, Wm. Hacker El Verano, R. G. Franchiski, Geln Ellen, E. Aquistpace, A. F. Gibson Fetters. Donald Cameron. Clifford Thomas, J.Meyer and Clyde Perry.

Busby and Coates, popular Ford agents were put in the special service class. They have ridden in Fords so much their feet were no good.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steinkamp of Sonoma Vista has been ill with pneumonia and not expected to live.

Mr. Andriotti of the tomato patch on the Tate farm has been very ill with the flu and under Dr. Gobar's care.

Every voter in this community is urged to cast a vote for Friend Richardson for state treasurer and thus express aproval of a worthy official. He has stopped a number of illegal attempts to take money from the treasury and he has increased the interest collections on state deposits more than forty thousand dollars annually. His action in placing the treasury on a currency basis and releasing several million in gold to the government has been commended by federal officials as businesslike and patriotic.

Mrs. Ed Lindley who has been in in a San Francisco ssanitarium, returned home last week much improved in health.

GEO. W. HOOPER JR. DIES OF INFLUENZA

Geo. W. Hooper Jr. 31 year old son of former residents and more recently of San Francisco died in that city Monday of influenza. He was the grandson ofprominent pioneer families and nephew of Granville Harris of this place.

Besides his parents, a brother Alfred, and his sisters Mrs. Winkelman and Mrs. Massie survive him. He was divorced from his wife about a year ago and had two children. Interment took place here in the family plot.

Mrs. J. P. McDonnell has returned to her Sebastopol home after an operation in San Francisco.

J. B. Morris Jr. of Denver has been visiting local relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Quartaroli have been moved to the Gobar sanitarium where they are being cared for.

Earl Revie left Camp Kearney this week for the East.

Mrs. Susie Revie was called to Sacramento Thursday on account of the serious illness of her daughter, Mrs. Arvilla Rockhold.

Miss Katie Laurenzi has been quite ill with the "flu."

Mrs. Carrie Burlingame who has been ill with the epidemic is improving. She had been giving valuable aid at the cannery as fore-lady and has been greatly missed at the plant.

Too much praise cannot be given Mrs. Mamie Delph, daughter of J. Fochetti for her heroic response to the call for a nurse in the present epidemic. She has answered the call of much distress and been a blessing in several Sonoma homes.

CONSTABLE'S WORK IS EXPLAINED

Bigelow Lets Cat Out Of Bag About Murray.

As was tipped off in these columns some weeks ago, J. K. Bigelow, erstwhile reformer mogul, and Jack Murray, constable, have had their heads together for some time past and now the cat is out of the bag as to just why Murray got so busy all of a sudden on the Fetters "clean-up" to the exclusion of a nearby road house which was running full blast at the same time and which he proclaimed to be disreputable and lawless, yet failed, yes never tried, to close up.

The reason is now plain. Bigelow clumsily gives it away this week in the columns of the sheet which he has long used as his mouthpiece. He asks his "many friends" to elect Murray. And why? The answer is found in the Fetters case and deputy sheriff Murray's peculiar idea of enforcing the law.

Murray has recently been basking in the smiles and smirks of the reformer and has sought to do his bidding, to "get" Fetters, notwithstanding that another resort, flagrant in its conduct was allowed to run wide open. It was Fetters alone they were after.

Murray and his wife, taking program, suddenly got the religion of professional reform, were active in a belated effort to bring the Fetters matter before the Womans club and getting a petition circulated, all after the Federal authorities had made the arrests and the accused had been arraigned. The history of the petition by which Murray made good with Bigelow is too well known to review, but it is amusing to recall that other petition of an unheard-of bridge club which asked for Fetters goat also but for which the constable's wife and other good folks were not permitted to qualify, it being a very exclusive document. The whole performance as pulled off by Bigelow behind the scenes was ludicrous and he made a monkey of Murray whose sudden awakening to conditions at Fetters on the late day when the Federal authorities had the matter well in hand was a joke.

The voters of Sonoma valley do not believe that the office of constable should be in the hands of a man who takes orders from a self-seeking, self decorated reform chief. They do not believe that law and order should be in the keeping of any constable who makes fish out of one resort and fowl of another, who seeks favors and grants special privileges contrary to law, and then does up his intimates at the bidding of an individual, so often repudiated that he does not dare show his hand.

This is why Jack Murray has a contest on his hands Tuesday and why Jep Valente, a young man whose record is fully as good as Murray's, is running against him. Jep came out at the request of friends from all over the valley who know true conditions and not only are they people "claiming great respectability" but possessing it to a far greater degree than some reformers who seek to advertise their righteousness but who cannot stop public opinion in its deductions.

Murray has not enforced the law without fear or favor and we predict that even if he gets the sufficient number of crosses stamped after his name Tuesday, he may not long have the title of deputy sheriff.

Deprived of the $100 a month job, he will then have to appeal to his reformer friend for more program. What the result would be is not hard to conjure.

Any officer willing to do the bidding of an individual who boasts of putting people out of business is unworthy to serve the people in any capacity.

A constable should enforce our laws without fear or favor.

RAY GOTTENBERG VERY ILL AT CAMP KEARNEY

OPEN AIR MASS TOMORROW

On next Sunday, Nov. 3rd. weather permitting, the Holy Sacrifice of the Man will be offered up in the open air in front of the parochial residence A temporary altar will be erected and services will begin at 9 o'clock. As in San Francisco and elsewhere, all are recommended to wear masks.

T. P. MORAN

W. K. Coleman met with a slight accident to one of his fingers while at work in the cannery Wednesday.

Influenza is said to have broken out at the State Home although drastic precautions were taken.

The trouble which has come to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Shofner is doubly sad as their son Lt. Shofner of the Navy Submarine service has been very ill in a base hospital on the Atlantic Coast. He is now said to be better

Ex Major Cummings was greeting friends here Wednesday. Mr. Cummings is now a resident of Healdsburg.

Supervisor Weise and Ben Behler of the Glen Ellen district have sold their vintage of 1918 to New York buyers for 45c per gallon.

Willie Sutter writes from "over seas" that the crisis is plainly past in the war zone.

This drastic measure would prohibit the manufacture and sale of wine for sacramental, medical or beverage purposes on January 1, 1919, whereas Congress has decided our grape growers should have until July I, 1919, to adjust themselves to "war time" prohibition.

Bell For Governor and Other Election Tips

THE GREAT DAY of the ballot is upon us and finds us floundering in a morass of 25 amendments, diverse offices for which to select the best men and an avalanche of advise as to how to best do your duty.

Close range inspection and investigation of local candidates, county and municipal, gives us some assurance that we will decorate the ballot with a few intelligent crosses at least and as for the process of eliminating a gubernatorial aspirant or two, also judicial talent etc, we have probably threshed that out to our satisfaction also. But when it comes to the amendments, running the gamut from Liquor Regulation to Eminent Domain you probably feel very much up in the air on the majority of these astute offerings. Every pet measure has had its boosters making a drive for it, but intelligent voters should refuse to be driven and rather vote "No" on every one than to make a mistake and fasten even one more experimental oddity on California.

You cannot make a mistake by voting for Theodore Bell, independent candidate for governor. He is our neighbor and a brilliant, broad-minded, capable citizen who is pledged to prune down expenses and be a friend of the tax-payer instead of a sinecure getter for politicians.

Jo. V. Snyder is the man we commend for Lieutenant Governor rather than C. C. Young, extremist and prohibition leader.

Thos. J. Lennon and Wm. G. Lorigan are worthy of your vote for associate justices of the Supreme Court.

It was our privilege to be in touch with Will C. Wood's work along educational lines in Alameda and he is a splendid man for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Coming to the amendments, we again urge you to vote "no", all along the line if in doubt, although some measures such as No. 8 on the ballot, having to do with the organization of the University of California is harmless and deserves your "yes".

Taxation exemptions should be frowned upon wherever run across.

No. 18, County and School Tax Limitations, is a corrective measure of former bungling and is urged for passage by all educators in the State.

Health Insurance is pernicious tinkering, aiming at the idealistic, and getting the State into a mess of Socialistic try-outs.

Workmens Compensation would give autocratic power to the Legislature and the law is better left as it is.

As for the two prohibition amendments, No. 1 and 22, we have all heard arguments for No. 1, the so-called Rominger bill which is endorsed by the Grape Growers Association and is a measure aimed to conciliate those who oppose the saloon but concede the justice of the vineyardists plea for fair play. If the voter believes prohibitionists can be conciliated, the Rominger bill will appeal as the solution of the much mooted liquor question. The argument against it is: "This measure (the so-called Rominger bill) is unwise and unnecessary, inasmuch as our general economic and social affairs are tending towards more temperate and wholesome conditions of life, and in consequence the habits of our people are becoming more temperate. This proposed law would interfere seriously with personal liberty by providing that liquors can only be consumed in public places with a meal, and then only between the hours of twelve o'clock noon and twelve o'clock midnight. This provision is decidedly unjust, particularly to workingmen, who would be compelled to pay for a meal in order to drink a glass of beer or wine. Such measures are not new, but wherever they have been tried they have always resulted in a waste of food; for while the law may compel one to buy a meal, there is no way to force the purchaser to eat it. Laws that interfere so intimately with personal rights always lead to violation and finally to disrespect of the law. Temperance and character must be developed in the individual by the proper conditions of life and opportunity:; they can never be developed by restrictive and oppressive laws. The hope of humanity rests upon construction, not restriction. It would be just as reasonable to require the purchase of a meal with a glass of lemonade, as with a glass of wine. It does not follow that one is always hungry when one is thursty, or thirsty when one is hungry. Yet this bill seems to imply it. Intemperance is not a cause within itself, but is the outgrowth of some intemperate condition of life. Restrictive and prohibitory laws will not cure intemperance. To the degree that men and women are assuming larger personal responsibility and taking their place in a broader democratic state, will such a law become obnoxious and useless. The people of California have the true spirit of the West with a broad understanding of individual rights. They cannot tolerate such intimate interference with personal rights as the proposed law provides."

Harry Ryan, State Organizer California Trades Union Liberty League.

As to the "bone dry", No. 22, it is a radical, extreme and un-American measure which should make no appeal to liberty loving people in our beautiful state of famous vines and wines. It banishes all thought of temperance and seeks to substitute iron clad laws to remould peoples habits and customs. Vote "No" on No. 22.

Voters, when you go into your dug-out Tuesday to dig out all these measures, bear your crosses the best you can and breath a prayer through your "flu" mask that election days do not come every day in the year.

Extreme Dairy Regulations Getting To Be Nusiance

"A NUMBER of western states are suffering a milk famine.

From laws making milk selling a monoqoly to requiring official inspection and tests of the family cow, dairy legislation covers a wide range.

Multiplying regulation laws has discouraged milk production until only the most expert scientific dairymen can follow it. Some states have hundreds of pages of milk legislation, with state and city inspectors and officials and sanitary milk regulations. But they have less and less milk at higher and higher prices as a result of too much interference and laws that hamper industry. Too much legislation and regulation will kill any industry. The people need less laws and more milk." —Pacific Coast Manfr.

Sonoma valley has had a surfeit of just this sort of thing through the interference and over zealous appliance of state inspection. Both dairymen and manufacturer have been hectored by the new-fangled laws, designed to assure the public everything prophylactic from cow sheds to test tubes. Aside from the nuisance snooping inspectors become, and the multitudinous hygienic laws which can be called with a whistle to get any man's goat in the dairy business is the increased cost of dairy produce to the consumer finally imposed by the dairy trust which is putting competition down and out through the obliging busy-bodies who cause small concerns so much trouble that they ultimately close their doors and thus stifle competition, a boon to the public but a rankling thorn in the sides of the big concerns.

The present shortage of help and the need for increased food production is not taken into consideration. Even in the present war time crisis the nefarious interference continues.

It is not pleasant to observe this discouragement of industry in our midst, the thing above everything else we have long sought to encourage in Sonoma. And what of the public health, which is an excuse for all this chemically pure fuss? It is not a whit better if as good as it used to be.

Job chasers and job holders hanging on with the tenacity of antiquated barnacles to the political snaps are responsible for increased cost of many of our commodities, and the countless regulatipns they seek to enforce are in many instances pure buncom.

TOM KEATING IS DEAD AT NOVATO

Thomas Keating, postmaster at Novato, and one of the well known residents of Marin county, died Tuesday morning at his home in Novato from pneumonia which followed an attack of influenza. He had not been well for days and finally gave up and took to his bed. His condition was serious from the first. He had been confined to bed only a few days when the end came.

The late Mr. Keating was a brother of Sheriff Keating of Marin county and Mrs. J. W. Ford, wife of Assistant District Atty. Ford of Santa Rosa. He was also a relative of the Millericks and Kehoes.

For years he had been a resident of Novato and was engaged in the livery business and had other interests in the Marin county town. Everybody who knew "Tom" admired him and he had many friends. His death has caused much regret in Novato where he hd spent the greater part of his life. He is survived by his widow and family.

Born in Nicasio he was about 45 years of age.

Arthur Fisk and another American soldier of the engineers were the first two of Uncle Sam's boys to enter a town freed by the allied troops from the Germans "over there". Fisk writes that the population fairly embraced them. Fisk has an engine and is now hauling wounded near the front.

OTHER THINGS BEING EQUAL —WHY, THEN, TRUST THE WOMAN

MISS IDA F. MARSHALL
Candidate for
COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

It was Socrates who said it, wasn't it? Or maybe memory fails, it has been so long since our school days and its text books on philosophy. Anyhow, it was said by some man back in the older days of civilization, and it has come down to us through the years, as true today as it was then. It has come through the crucible of time, where is winnowed the chaff from the kernel, and it is true. For, know this, no false thing lives an age —"Other things being equal, trust the woman."

In this connection we have in mind the candidacy of Miss Ida F. Marshall for Superintendent of Schools of Sonoma County, who is the only lady candidate in the field for the support of the people of this county, and surely we ought to be generous enough to elect one lady among all the men who are aspiring to office at the November election. That is not the only consideration however.

Miss Marshall is eminently qualified by training, by experience and by natural ability for the office which she aspires, and to administer to the needs of the younger generation probably as no other candidate in the county is qualified for the office to which he aspires—and we have some mighty able men seeking office this fall.

"Other things being equal, trust the woman." And other things ARE equal. Miss Marshall has twenty years' experience in the schoolroom. She has been vice-principal of the Healdsburg grammar schools under the veteran educator, H. R. Bull, for eight years, and he gives her candidacy his unqualified endorsement, having only the best welfare of the schools of the county in mind and heart. Surely the voters of the county can trust the man whom the people of Healdsburg have honored time after time, year after year, as the head of the most important school in their district. We believe that a vote for Miss Marshall is not only an intellegent thing to do, but it is the right thing to do, and this endorsement is not given hastily, but after mature deliberation. adv.

LETTER FROM SOLDIER IN FRANCE

Oscar Studley Says Yanks Are To Give Kaiser Bill A'plenty.

Oscar Studley writes from France where he has now been for six months that he is well and still in the air service repair squadron. He has five mechanics working under him but says he doesnot get any more money for taking all the responsibility and that the boss of the crew has to stand for all the tools lost and make them good.

He declares that the French trades people are making a lot of money out of the Yanks and tells of a cobbler over there who charged $3 to half sole a pair of shoes the cost of leather of course being very high. Studley has received letters from his former friends and neighbors Dick and Ren Vernon who are also in France. In regard to the finish and progress of the war Studley says:

September 23, 1918.

Dear Brother and All:

I received four letters from you a couple of days ago dated Aug. 8, 10, 19, and21, got them all at once. I and another guy went to town yesterday afternoon after a pair of shoes he took in to get fixed and we had a time making the old man understand what we wanted, when this guy left the shoes there was a girl in the place that could talk a little English but when we went after them the girl wasn't there so we had a time makeing the old frog eater understand what we wanted. We made all kinds of motions, finally we made him understand and he charged him 15 franks for fixing his shoes and he furnished the soles. 15 franks is about $3. It is some price for half soling a pair of shoes. They are making more money than they ever did before.

You wanted to know what the French called us when they wanted us. They call us Yanks and make a lot of motions. I am not working with any of them, they are all Americans where I work . I have got got five guys working under me now but I'm not very anxious to be in charge of a crew for a guy don't get any more money for it and has to take all of the responsibility for the work and has to pay for all the tools they loose for the tools are charged to the boss of the crew.

Dick and Ren are both over here in France. I got a letter from Dick a couple of weeks ago and I got one from Ren a couple of days ago they said they had a fine trip coming over. I sure would like to see them and have a good chat with them but I don't suppose I will get to see them until after the war. Roy is sure a lucky guy getting transferred to Frisco he can come up and see you every week or so. You said he wanted to come over here or go some place. Tell him I will trade places with him for a while for I have been in Europe nearly six months and I have seen a little of this country. "There was an old southern guy spoke at the Y. M. C. A. the other night about democracy. He was sure a good talker. He said if we didn't win the war we would fight the Kaiser until Hell froze over and then would buy ice skates and then go after them and he is just about right but we are going to lick the old Kaiser long before hell freezes over. The old Kaiser has begun to realize that the Yanks are over here and there is another verse to it. They are goning to stay right on his trail until he has had a plenty. You get the news just about as quick as we do. You wanted to know if there were any American papers here or if we only got the French papers We get an American paper every day printed in Paris. The news guy comes along here about 2 o'clock p. m. and it is time he is coming". I am as ever, Your Brother,

Oscar A. Studley.

ROWE SUIT AGAINST FETTERS AT SANTA ROSA

The Spanish influenza has had sufficient influence to delay the slander case now pending in JudgeSeawell's department of the superior court before a jury in which Robert P. Rowe seeks $25,000 in damages from Emma P Fetters and husband for alleged defamation of character. Attorney W. F. Cowan, representing the defense, was afflicted by the prevailing grip at noon Friday and Dr. J. W Jesse, his physician, notified the court that it would be dangerous for the lawyer to leave his apartments. The seizure was very sudden, as Mr. Cowan appeared to be in his usual health at the morning session of court.

At the beginning of the afternoon session Judge Seawell postponed the further trial until Tuesday and admonished the jurors to avoid discussing the case. He recommended that they communicate with the court clerk on Monday as to whether the trial will be resumed Tuesday. At Friday morning's session the witnesses examined were: Mrs. R. P. Rowe Mrs. A. P. Ringressy, Justice of the Peace Joseph L. Small, and the plaintiff. His honor differentiated between two kinds of calumny—that slander is uttered by the tongue and libel is written. The evidence thus far is not as sensational as expected.

The completed jury in the damage suit brought by R. P. Rowe against Mrs. Emma P. Fetters and George Fetters, in which damages are sought of $25,000, is as follows:

Cecil D. Johns, Wm. D. Deeds, Hamilton Farrell, Henry W. Richardson, Edgar H. Wheller, Ora T. Hassett, John Lowery, J. E. Smith, Janius F. Ridley, Jacob D. A. Bennett, George Hall and J. Kurlander.

Mrs. Rita Inez Lewis related the alleged slander and was followed by Mrs. Gravelle. Both are material witnesses for plaintiff. Allegations were made to the effect that Mrs. Fetters had stated that Rowe and his store must be driven out of Fetters Springs

Where "Angels" Fear to Tread

On November 5th you will vote on an amendment that will vitally affect every person in California. It goes to the root of the health of at least 80 per cent of the total population of the State—the people who must measure their dollars to get out of life something more than a mere existence.

This Amendment is the Dental Bill that aims to destroy the power of the MINIMUM-FEE-FIXERS and place dentistry where it belongs—at the command of all the people.

Statistics show that only 20 per cent of the people go to dentists, except perhaps to have a painful, utterly decayed tooth extracted. The reason? Because the kind of dentistry that saves teeth, that makes good health possible, that prolongs life, has been placed beyond the reach of the great mass of people by the "ethical" dentist.

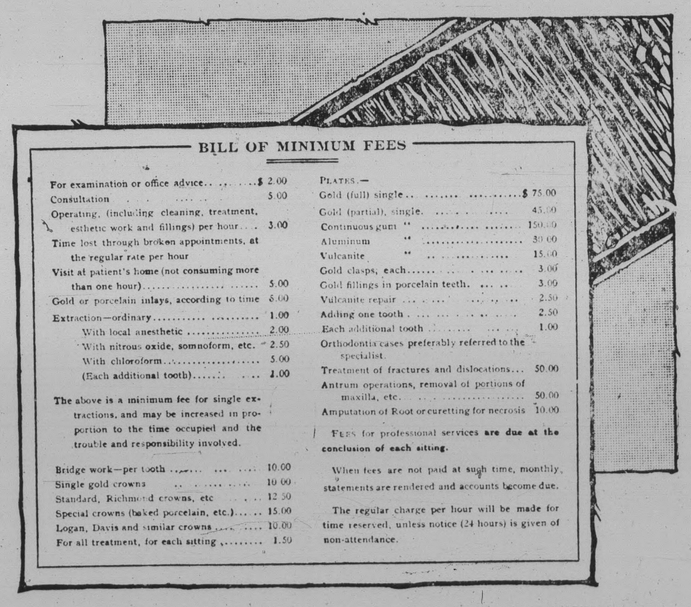
The so-called ethical dentist is bitterly opposed to this new law. At the first reading of it you will wonder why. You will see by its provisions that it raises the qualifications of membership on the State Board of Dental Examiners—that it does not lessen legitimate standards of dentistry, that it protects patients under the influence of anaesthetics, when they most need protection.

But if these provisions jar the sensitive nerves of the "ethical dentist", it is as nothing compared to the amendment's great unforgivable offense: It brings the fixed prices of the ethical dentist face to face with competition—and this is the ground where even angels must not tread. For if there is any one thing disastrous to the "ethical dentist"—it is this!

Perhaps you did not know that the "ethical dentists" have agreements as to MINIMUM FEES—not as to maximum. That is benignly left to the size of the patient's purse and the courage of the "ethical" practitioner. But don't take our word for this. Here's the best evidence in the case—an actual reproduction of the bill of minimum fees adopted by the most important chapter of the great State dental trust:

* * * * *

NOW—what are you, the voters of California, going to do on November 5th? Surely you'll not sit idly by; surely you'll vote yes on this amendment that gives the 80 per cent the same opportunities of health as the 20 per cent that can afford the cost of "ethical" treatment. Study the new measure carefully and you will realize that it should be made a law because it gives the large majority the things that 20 per cent now command.



BILL OF MINIMUM FEES

For examination or office advice	$ 2.00	PLATES.—
Consultation	5.00	Gold (full) single	$ 75.00

VINEBURG

It is with pleasure that we inform the many friends of Mrs, Wm. Helberg (nee) Myrtle Thomas that the lady has returned to her Schellville home from Napa and is doing nicely.

Grape harvesting in this section is about completed. There was a heavy yield and some of the wineries worked night and day, but the large crop was handled alright.

Next Tuesday will prove if all the voters of Vineburg precinct will be loyal to the name they gave this Vine clad part of Sonoma valley and vote against amendment No. 1 and 22. We are absolutely positive that all the "old guard" will Those who in years gone bye, worked night and day to plant and care for the glorious vineyards that have made the wines from this part of the valley famous the world over, remember peaceful Vineburg on Tuesday next and "vote wet".

We heard a certain citizen offer to bet the other day, that Vineburg precinct would go "dry" on Tuesday next but as the said citizen has not sense enough to bet that he is alive how is he going to change the name of Vineburg to "Dryburg".

Messers Clement Maurice and Henry Regal of San Francisco both well known in business and social circles in the Metropolis are guests of Mr. Louis Martin at Vineburg Inn at present.

Mr. and Mrs. August Figone and family of San Francisco were guests at the John Batto residence on Sunday last.

A swell car load of dried fruit was shipped from Battos spur on Tuesday last consigned to the C. P. Co. Healdsburg and contained 25 tons of choice Sonoma Valley pears and prunes all gilt edged. Mr Chadbourne "Chad" the expert young dried fruit man of Napa had charge of the shipment.

Theo. Reiblie was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Forni on Sunday last.

We understand that Enrico Forni Louis Martin and several prominent citizens are going to start an auto plant in Vineburg in opposition to Henry Ford, after the war is over.

CONQUER INFLUENZA WITH NEILSON CURE

Surgeon John L. Neilson, U. S. N., in charge of Medical supply depot at Mare Island, is the man who is said to have conquered the influenza and pneumonia at the navy yard. His cure consists of injections of sodium salicylate as well as magnesium sulphate solutions into the veins of the patients at different intervals. The cure has been such a success that the epidemic scare is over at the yard and one of the hospitals has already been torn torn down.

According to Dr. Neilson, the injections were used in forty bad cases and all of them are able to be around at the present time.

These ingredients are in Lefo Effervescent manufactured at Vineburg and are on sale at Mc Elney's. adv.

T. J. Mc Gimsey who has been relieved from his duties at Santa Rosa is enjoying life at his pretty home here where his son, Milton, is also visiting at the present time.

Carl Poppe of the Navy phoned home to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Poppe of Glen Ellen recently while his ship was coaling at a nearby port. He was well and sent regards to his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vella entertained a few friends at dinner Sunday night. The fine repast of several courses was interspersed with choice records on the Victrola among which the "Puritani of Galli-Curcci was particularly fine.

Z. Lane who has been attending to his extensive timber interests in Washington has been down on a visit to his wife and daughter here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Studley who have been in Oregon on a visit are expected home shortly.

Miss Amy Rowe after a summer course at U. C. in salesmanship has taken a position at an exclusive waist shop in Berkeley. She formerly was employed by G. H. Hotz.

Tom. Millerick rodeo star is said to be a class I A registrant this time. Tom is a cattle raiser and might claim exemption but it is understood he will not, providing they will guarantee him the chance to lasso a few Huns "over there".

THE CONSTABLE RACE

(Dope Sheet or Form Chart)

Some fellows may believe that
Governor of Calif. is the Big idea this election
And it might be outside
In the great world
But here in Sonoma and vicinity
The main squeeze is "the bull"
"The cop" the constable (mostly con)
The fellow what holds the job now
Wants to keep on holding on
And he's got the horse-shoe
Atmosphere in his favor
For he used to be
Eddie Graney's horse shoer
Till his luck gave out
And then he came to Sonoma
And got to be the handsome
Cop of this beat.
Second only to Jimmy Albertson
For looks
Only he's got the dime novel
Mustache and it bristles
Something fierce when he
Tries to get confessions
And the like of that
Out of hardened criminals
And then for parades and grand marshal
Stunts it looks something grand
Sometimes he looks like the toreador
Throwing the bull
In fact he knows more about bull than cow
But Jack's weakness is his eyes
They're peculiar. Sometimes he sees
Things and sometimes he don't
For instance you'd excuse
The fact that blind pigs
Get by him
Cause they're usually slick and camouflaged
But the kind that have
Their eyes wide open
Running wide open too
He's missed some of them
Awful queer
While landing on others
Like a ton of bricks
Strange aint it?
Ought to have his eyes
Attended to eh?
Of course
The Federal Sleuths
Blazed the trail
For him and that helped some
To open his eyes and
Dim the great white way
But some folks say
The white way is got
The yellow way
Skinned to a frazzle
Well when the dimmer law
Began to go into effect
Some wise politicians
Got "hip"
And turned the spot light
On to Jep Valente
Jep was "on"
They said he was
The write man at the
Primaries, a lot of voters did.
Acquainted with Jep
He of the large voice
And the big heart
And the strong arm
Belongs to the Elite too
(Ought to get by with that)
And when the cruel deed
Is done and the Rominger
Bill alone stands the test
And the bone dry
Hits him a solar plexus
Jep wants to eat
To eat 'em alive
And he promises not to
Overlook a single trick
And he's a wise boy
No camouflage can
Fool him
He'd clean up the
Law breakers like
An educated cyclone
Jep plays no favorities
His motto is a square deal
For square people
And the hatch-ax for crooks
Jep's got no Mrs. Jep
To help on the job
He says they are excess baggage
But you know how these fly cops
Flirt when they get
To be cops
Watch Jep smoke up.
His name must be Written in
Can you write?
In Glen Ellen there are
Two aspirants for the
Job of constable
And a dozen also-rans since Jerry
Passed through the pearly gates
They've been scampering around like
Shooting stars trying to land
On that constable job.
Julius Pancrazi is a comer,
Romping down the home stretch
And the money all on him, but
Jim Gibson is going to give him a run
And says he's as likely
As any two year old and that
Jerry's mantle is going to descend
On him. Then there's
Wm. Vandewater with a name "wet"
Enough at the end to be popular.
And Bill Ping with the mule-skinner
Vocabulary
A recommend
If nothing else, though Bill looks the
Part of the village club-twirller
Shucks folks! its up to youse
We recommend all these gents
To your consideration. Thank you.
